

Vienna Ice Dream

I have arrived in Vienna at the end of January, the weather is still very cold approximately -2 degree Celsius (the lowest) to 4 degree Celsius (the highest). It is still mid-winter season. One of the most popular places that you should not miss during this season is a very beautiful and huge ice rink at Rathausplatz called 'Vienna Ice Dream'.

Vienna Ice Dream is a paradise for ice-skating. The idyllically illuminated façade of City Hall forms as a backdrop of the ice rink. Not only that many types of ground-level of ice rinks are offered, but also the Sky Rink which allows the race over the ice on two levels. Moreover, there is also a magical ice path through the City Hall Park that would thrill all the ice-skaters.

In my opinion, this is the most impressive special place in Vienna because it is very unique and gorgeous. I recommend nighttime skating to enjoy all the beauty and atmosphere. There are a few local food and drinks vendors inside so that you can have a break and continue ice-skating later. The ticket is for multiple entries. If you ordered a type of drink that comes in a cup, you can get a few Euros back when you return it to the vendor.
