1. 學友簡介(含第一次聯繫及 email 截圖):

Translation to English: Our first contact was on June 2, 2023. We initially communicated through email, and later switched to Instagram. The person is quite friendly and types incredibly fast.

2. 學友最喜歡臺灣的那一點(可自由發揮字數不限)

He particularly enjoys Taiwanese snacks and cultural experiences. He has a special interest in pineapple cakes. Later, upon my recommendation, he went to buy Chia Te's pineapple cakes, and he really liked them.

3. 接待心得(至少 300 字以上)

In the beginning, our communication during the summer break was lively and promising, as we exchanged messages with great enthusiasm. I was eagerly anticipating the opportunity to meet him in person. He showed a keen interest in learning about Taiwan, seeking advice on finding a suitable residential area for renting, inquiring about the process of obtaining a driver's license, and wanting to know about commonly used apps in our daily lives.

Despite our initial excitement, scheduling a face-to-face meeting proved challenging. We made several attempts to plan outings, including visits to club fairs and a surfing adventure in Yilan. Unfortunately, these plans often fell through due to his infrequent responses. It became apparent that Instagram, the platform we primarily used for communication, wasn't a commonly utilized social app in Sweden, leading to missed messages.

Our efforts to synchronize our schedules were met with various obstacles, and our planned meet-ups never materialized. In the meantime, I checked in with him a few times to inquire about his well-being and updates, but our conflicting schedules continued to hinder our chances of meeting.

As the end of the exchange semester approached, I noticed that some exchange students had already begun their journeys back to their home countries. Realizing the urgency, I promptly suggested a lunch meeting. However, he responded belatedly on the 15th of December, mentioning that he was currently in Tainan. Consequently, as of the submission of this report, a face-to-face meeting is still pending.

Reflecting on this exchange experience, it has been a uniquely challenging yet fulfilling journey. Serving as his buddy, I am grateful for the opportunity to offer assistance and guidance, and I remain hopeful that our schedules will align before the conclusion of this exchange program. Despite the logistical hurdles, I am optimistic about the potential for a meaningful and overdue encounter in the near future.

Since we haven't met in person yet, I'm providing two screenshots of our conversations. One is an invitation to explore club fairs together(9/18), and the other captures his feedback after purchasing pineapple cakes(8/30).
