Dear Thomas,

Nice to e-meet you! My name is Tiana, and I'll be your buddy during your exchange program at NCCU.

Allow me to introduce myself briefly. I am currently a graduate student majoring in TIIPM. Apart from my academic pursuits, I am passionate about painting, dancing, and exploring new places. Lately, most of my time has been dedicated to completing tasks assigned by my advising professor, but I always find time for my hobbies.

This year marks my fifth year at NCCU, including my undergraduate studies. As such, please feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions. Additionally, our school has a specialized office for exchange students.

For any queries related to courses, dorms, or any other matter, you can contact them at exchange@nccu.edu.tw.

Also, Below is other schedule you might need to notice:

- * i-house check-in :2023/09/04
- * orientation 2023/09/06
- * physical check-up 2023/09/02

If this is your first time visiting Taiwan, I assure you that you won't regret your decision. This remarkable island offers countless exciting adventures and a wealth of opportunities to have fun and explore.

Wishing you a fantastic day!

Tiana

Hi Thomas,

It's amazing how time flies, and we're already at the start of a new semester.

I trust that you've settled into life at NCCU and that you've successfully secured the courses you were hoping for.

I wanted to drop you a quick note to remind you that if you ever encounter any challenges or need assistance, don't hesitate to reach out to the Office of International Programs.

They're here to support you, and you can rely on their help.

I genuinely hope you make the most of your adventure in Taiwan. Wishing you the very best of luck!

P.S. With the upcoming Moon Festival, you definitely should indulge in a barbecue with your friends:)

Warm regards,
Tiana
