Our summer schools

Lancaster's Global Summer Schools are an opportunity to connect with students from around the world, develop key global competencies and experience a varied programme of lectures, small group work, and field trips.

- International Cultural Experience

- Environment and Sustainability
- Introduction to Law
- International Commercial Law
- Film
- War and Diplomacy

As well as the academic content, the Global Summer Schools offer a lively social programme to make new friends, try new skills, and travel the UK.

Our summer schools will run from 10 to 28 July 2023. The International Cultural Experience will also run from 21 August to 08 September 2023.

You can find full details on our webpage, including programme details, credit load, fees, and the student application form.

How to apply

Individual students can apply directly on our website.

Alternatively, if you have a group of students applying for our summer schools, please email us the list of nominated students at globalschools@lancaster.ac.uk. This list should include:

- Student's name
- Student's surname
- Student's email address

- Summer school they will be applying for

In this case, students do not need to complete the application form on our website. We will provide them with detailed information on how to apply via email.

Application deadline: Monday 17 April 2023

We will really appreciate if you help us promote our Global Summer School by posting the brochure and video on your website / social media platforms with a link to our website: lancaster.ac.uk/global-summer-schools. We will be more than happy to arrange a meeting with you to talk about our summer schools and the different options available to your students.

For more information, please contact us at globalschools@lancaster.ac.uk
