

FOSTER SCHOOL OF BUSINESS UNDERGRADUATE EXCHANGE

2024-2025 FACTSHEET

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, USA

The Michael G. Foster School of Business at the University of Washington is located in beautiful Seattle, Washington USA. Seattle lies in the Northwest corner of the continental United States and is an idyllic location surrounded by both mountains and water. Seattle is home to many iconic companies including Starbucks, Amazon, Boeing, and many others, making it an ideal place to study business.

STUDY PROGRAM

COURSES

Students must attend the UW on a full-time basis. A full-time course load is 12-18 UW credits per quarter. 18 credits is the maximum. Quarters run for 10 weeks each. Incoming exchange students typically take three or four 100- to 400-level courses with each course carrying 4 UW credits.

Exchange students are responsible for ensuring that the credits they receive will transfer back to their home institution. Demand and space constraints make Finance and Accounting courses difficult to get into. Foster School incoming exchange students are allowed to take non-business coursework.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS & TIME SCHEDULE

The following links show course descriptions for all UW and Foster School courses. See the Time Schedule to determine which courses are offered during which term.

LEARNING EXPECTATIONS

Class formats include lecture and discussion, in-class presentations and case studies. Grading is based on papers, group projects, case studies, class participation and exams. Exam formats may vary. Typically exams are held during the final week of the quarter.

LENGTH OF CLASS

A typical upper-division 4-credit business course runs 2 days per week, for 2 hours per day, for a total of 4 hours of class time each week or 40 hours of classtime during a quarter. Courses usually run either Monday and Wednesday, or Tuesday and Thursday anytime from 7:30 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. Courses outside the Foster School may be offered on different schedules.
