

After the semester was over, I went traveling to Shanghai, Nanjing, and Suzhou. Ever since I was a college student, I have been really interested in the history of Asian countries. Every time I visited Asian countries such as Thailand, Philippines, Vietnam, Malaysia and so on, I always visited historical places.

Japan and China had a bad history before. As I am a Japanese, Nanjing was one of the important cities that I had to visit.

My favorite food at this time in China was Suzhou noodles. This was the best!

The view of Pudong area was amazing. On my last stay in Shanghai, I finally found the best bar that had the most beautiful views. But the lightd went off one minute after I entered the bar.

I also met my senior, Astrid who is working in Nantong(near Shanghai). She came to Shanghai to see me. NCCU friendship lasts forever!
