About CUHK Business School

CUHK Business School (also known as “The Faculty of Business Administration”) is a pioneer in business education in Hong Kong since the early 1960s; it has its inspired vision: “To develop global business leaders for the Asian Century”. It is the first business school in Hong Kong to offer an undergraduate business administration programme (1963), a full-time MBA programme (1966), a part-time MBA programme (1977) and an EMBA programme (1993).

CUHK Business School is a global institution that embraces innovations, nurtures entrepreneurial mindsets and promotes social responsibility. Leveraging on our deep connections to the Greater Bay Area, we actively contribute to the social and economic development of this region.
