SPORT FEDERATIONS AND MAJOR EVENTS MANAGEMENT PROGRAMME

Over the last 8 years, France has organised no fewer than 12 world championships and 13 European championships, including the UEFA EURO 2016 and the Ryder's Cup in 2018. This impressive achievement continues with the Rugby World Cup in 2023 and the largest mega sporting event in the world: the Olympic Games in 2024.

With major sporting partners, NEOMA Business School has created the Winter Sport Federations and Major Events Management programme, giving participants a solid insight into the French success story of major sports event through courses taught in Paris and Reims campuses (conferences with sport Federations and leading actors in major international events).
