

Report #1: Football Games

The University of Florida

If you attend the UF in fall, you will be able to watch football games in the huge stadium. American football is very popular in the US, especially at the UF, which has won many football championships in the past. Basketball is also very famous. The UF basketball men's team came second in the 2013 national competition.

The UF basically has 2 major gyms, and a huge stadium where the UF students watch football games. It also has a standard swimming pool.
