

Report #4: Important Buildings and Facilities

The University of Florida

The UF has a huge campus, and it also encompasses some important buildings that exchange students should know. First, Reizts Union is the main building for student events. It has a Wells Fargo branch, some restaurants, the career center and the movie theatre. Every Friday night during the semester, Reizts Union plays a movie recommended by public votes. Students can also have free drink and popcorn during the movie! You can't miss it!

Another important building is the Hub. The Hub has some good restaurants and a small computer center. The International Center is also located there. The center provides many kinds of services to international students. The Hub also has a computer desk where students can ask for help about computer and internet problems.
