

This year, for learners aged 18+ we are offering an English Language, British Culture and Intercultural Skills Summer School. The programme is an intensive two-week language and cultural immersion programme with a focus on cross-cultural communicative skills, taught by experienced tutors from the Global Opportunities team at our prestigious Russell Group University.

The programme aims to:

- Strengthen students' English language skills through a communicative and functional language based approach
- Broaden cultural horizons and enhance students' intercultural competence
- Develop and demonstrate in-demand and transferable professional skills for students' future career or studies

As with all our programmes, students will benefit from a safe and supportive multicultural campus environment, a rich schedule of cultural trips and activities, unique University of York components and optional campus accommodation.

Applications now open and students can take advantage of an early bird discount for any applications submitted before midnight (GMT) on the 29th March.

Full details can be found on our York Global Summer Schools webpages. Please spread the word by sharing this with your students.

For any questions or further information please don't hesitate to contact our summer schools team at global-summer@york.ac.uk

Why choose York?

- Get to know York, regularly named one of the best places to live and visit in the UK. With a population of 200,000, it's big enough to feel lively but small enough to feel like home.
- Immerse yourself in the history, culture and beauty of Yorkshire, also known as 'God's Own Country' with two national parks on our doorstep - the Yorkshire Dales and the North York Moors.
- Explore more of the UK from York's convenient place halfway between Edinburgh and London, and with direct rail networks to other major cities.

Best wishes,
