1. 學友簡介（含第一次聯繫及 email 截圖）：

I and Jimmy, who are my classmates, have been assigned the same buddy — Bo, a friend from Norway. Jimmy reached out to Bo first via email, and we've shared our Instagram contacts to make communication more convenient.

Dear Bo ,

Hello and Merry Christmas! My name is Jimmy, and I'm thrilled to be your buddy during your exchange program at National Chengchi University (NCCU). I hope this email finds you well.

I'm here to help you adjust to life in Taiwan and to make your stay as enjoyable and enriching as possible. Whether it's navigating campus, exploring Taipei, or answering any questions about life here, feel free to reach out anytime.

To get started, it'd be great to know a little more about you! When will you be arriving in Taiwan?

I'm looking forward to meeting you and making your exchange experience a memorable one. Let me know if there's anything you need help with before your arrival.

Safe travels, and see you soon!

Best regards,

Jimmy

2. 學友最喜歡臺灣的那一點(可自由發揮字數不限)

He enjoys hot pot, and we've agreed to have it together the next time he comes to Taiwan. During our outing, we also visited a night market, where he tried pig blood for the first time — and so did I. Although the name and appearance weren't very appealing, it surprisingly tasted much better than we expected, and we both ended up liking it.

3. 接待心得(至少 300 字以上)

That day, Jimmy and I also got to meet many of his Norwegian friends — Filip, Tarald, and Thomas. They were all very friendly and open-minded, which made it easy for us to connect. Together, we went on a food adventure through Tamsui, Shilin Night Market, and Yuanshan. We wrapped up the night by enjoying a few cold beers together, sharing laughs and stories as we looked back on the fun moments of the day.
